			Weather:	Cool and dry

A lovely bright and sunny day today. We started in the Library carpark with some litter picking and also trimmed down some overhanging branches from the tree. This has caused a lots of leaf debris/mud to form underneath so we tried to clear as much of that away as possible whilst leaving the gravel in place. In total 2 really full brown bins of branches removed. This area should be a little easier to park in now.

Before: Tree with lots of low branches and rubbish all blown into the corner area

After: All the low hanging branches removed as well as the rubbish.

On to Church Lane Jitty, past the Blacksmiths Arms and the Holy Trinity Church. The snow drops were looking lovely here in all the sunshine. More leaf debris to sweep away to keep weeds and undergrowth at bay in the coming months. Looking nice and neat again.

Finally along to Hollybush jitty and Bryan Close to do more of the same.

These areas have not been cleared by our group before and are really well looked after so all that was required today was to remove as much leaf debris as possible, and to tidy a few patches where some regrowth had been left. It's still rather wet from all the recent weather and in a very sheltered spot needs to dry out still to enable us to remove so more – we will come back in the summer! Around Bryan Close we trimmed some shrubs that were beginning to overhang and block parts of the path. Well done team! Another good job done.
